

Hi everyone,

Hope you're all well, keeping warm and enjoying the school holidays! We have been very busy here these past couple of months with our mid-year photoshoot. A big thank you to all those involved and to our photographer, John Lane. It was nice seeing all you gorgeous Bubblegum kids looking great and enjoying yourselves.

All the photos are now online, so you can log on and have a look. Also it would be great to get a couple of "outdoor, casual shots of your own to add a bit of variety to your pages. I am sure most of you would have some great shots you would like to be included. If you don't have login details yet or have forgotten yours, please follow the steps outlined below:

1. Go to www.bubblegumcasting.com.au
 2. Click on 'Login to Bubblegum'
 3. Click on 'Forgot your password?'
 4. Enter your email* and click submit - your details will be sent to you
- * Please note: you must enter the email address supplied to Bubblegum

Can you please make sure that all details are updated and all measurements are correct.

Some of our little ones who were still too young for our photoshoot need to update information. Please make sure your photos are updated together with measurements and progress e.g. crawling, walking etc. If you wish to continue with us, it is most important that we have all this in order to promote your child adequately so thank you to everyone in advance.

Not everyone could make it to the photoshoot for various reasons however if you wish to re-register please give us a call. We will require photos from you and updated measurements and your re-registration fees – depending on the date you joined us.

We have been sending out emails in regard to JJ school of Drama Workshops. Many of you have attended the Workshops, which is great to see. These have proven to be invaluable to us as Jo gives us feedback on each child's performance level, capabilities, character and areas where each child could improve. For those of you who have done a workshop, perhaps you could give us your feedback on how you felt about it and what you learned.

Now onto the work front, Bubblegum has had many exciting jobs and opportunities since our last Newsletter. Firstly we would like to congratulate Ashley Eadon for being short listed for Rove's 'Are you smarter than a fifth grader?'. She was one of the top 18 kids out of 2,500 who auditioned. This was an amazing achievement and we are so very proud of her! Well done Ashley and you have proven to many of us that you are a wonderful Talent. I am sure we will hearing more about you over the coming year.

We have had kids audition for a number of new TV series including Disney's 'As The Bell Rings' and ABC/BBC series 'Dead Normal'. Look out for Natalie Sherr and Tyrone Wertheim who scored a role in the new 8-part ABC TV series Race Relations and Brodie Robinson in the ABC's The Librarians. Congratulations! We are proud of you too.

We have also been very successful with television commercials, so keep your eyes open for these:

Oreo TVC– Ashley Eadon, Whitney Eadon, Taig Fisher, Holly Hains & Zach Patrick.

QV TVC – Lily Egan

Qantas TVC – Jack Galloway

Holden TVC – Brandon Booth

Coles TVC – Harry D'Arcy

CSR LoGI TVC – Jack Hamilton

Weetbix TVC – Alexander Stock and Lachlan Stock

Beyond Blue TVC – Alexander Stock

ABC TVC – Madison Lu and her dad, Michael

Ski Yoghurt TVC – Siobhan Daisley & Cynthia Ly

Hayley Gears and her dad David are the voices of the Homecoming TVC including the Radio Ads airing in the United States.

Many of our children have also taken part in still photography for Target, K-Mart, Myer, Just Jeans, Patons and Gumboots. We look forward to seeing the shots and hope you all had fun!

If you have any pictures or stories from jobs you would like to share, please email us. You could be featured in our next newsletter or on our website gallery. Take care and enjoy the rest of your holidays.

Kind Regards,
Jacki and Lisa-Marie
